Service Suspension and Reinstatement Policy

While it is never our desire to have to ask our guests and patrons to leave the property, violations of our Code of Conduct Policy may result in a suspension of services and possible legal action. Guest suspensions are based on the severity of the infraction.

1. Infractions that jeopardize the safety of our patrons, volunteers, staff, and board members, will automatically result in a one-year trespass
2. Infractions that impair our ability to provide services to other patrons, will result in a suspension of services for one week or longer
3. Violations of our Code of Conduct Policy will result in a progressive suspension for one day, one week, one month or one year dependent on the severity and or frequency of the violation.
4. If a guest or volunteer is asked to leave for a week or longer, the guest or volunteer will have to attend a reconciliation meeting prior to having services reinstated.
5. A reconciliation meeting does not automatically result in a reinstatement of services.
6. SPIN Staff and Board members reserve the right to determine whether reinstatement of services is in the best interest of the organization
7. Only Staff members or a designated representative may impose a suspension of services.
8. A reconciliation team is composed of the guest, executive director (or an executive board representative in the absence of the executive director), and the involved staff member(s).
